Greetings from Rev. Dr. Walter S. Thomas, Jr.

To God be the glory for the great things He has done and is doing right now! We are extremely grateful and thankful for your presence and sharing in this moment with us. Today is a day of tremendous celebration, the beginning of the next chapter for the New Psalmist Baptist Church. Our history as a church has shown the faithfulness of our God, as only three pastors have served in the 125-year history of New Psalmist. This installation marks the fourth turning of the pastoral page as pastor and people officially come together as one.

This journey is not one that I can say I expected or anticipated. Serving as the next pastor of my home church was not on my radar, but when God speaks and calls us into His work, there is no other answer than, "Yes, Lord." This transition for our family has been aided by the prayers, love, and care of our family, friends, ministry peers, and of course, our NPBC family. You all have served as confirmation to this call being a source of support and strength through this season.

Thank you to the Installation Committee for a marvelous day and season of celebration. You all designed an experience that matches the historical significance of this transition. To all the Diaconate, Staff, Ministers, Ministry Leaders and iServe members, thank you for your commitment and service. To my parents, Bishop and Lady Thomas, thank you for the preparation and the model you displayed not only in the church but at home as well. Jarrette, Lillian, and Walter, III, I would not have survived without you! I know moves are never easy, and reestablishing what home and life are is unsettling, but you all have taken it on and allowed me the space and grace to be Husband, Father and Pastor. I love you all so much!

Coming home and serving as the Pastor-Elect and First Family, we have experienced moments and memories that I believe are catapulting our church forward into what God has destined for New Psalmist in this age. As we continue to carry out our mission to Empower Disciples, it is my prayer that we continue to see God move as He has so many times before. For the past 49 years we have moved under the Pastoral leadership of Bishop Walter S. Thomas, Sr.. Bishop and Lady Thomas have set a standard and laid a foundation that we are privileged to now stand upon as we build up the Kingdom of God.

This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes.

Rev. Dr. Walter S. Thomas, Jr.

Dr. Walter Scott Thomas, Jr. has exemplified leadership through both actions and words since beginning his preaching journey in 2001 at New Psalmist Baptist Church, Baltimore, MD, under his father, Bishop Walter S. Thomas, Sr.'s guidance.

Luther King Jr. Board of Preachers in 2018, and he actively participates in the Kingdom Association of Covenant Pastors.

Ordained in 2007, he graduated Cum Laude from Morehouse College, majoring in Religious Studies with a Psychology minor, and went on to earn a Master of Divinity from Howard University School of Divinity and a Doctor of Ministry from United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio.

His tenure starting November 2014 at First Baptist Church of Steelton in Harrisburg, PA, led to growth and new initiatives like social media outreach, web streaming, and online giving. In August 2023, Dr. Thomas was chosen as Pastor-Elect of New Psalmist Baptist Church, reflecting his unwavering dedication to his ministry and community engagement.

Dr. Thomas has also been involved in advocacy and peace efforts, including a peace summit in Hiroshima and roles within the African-American Ministerial Alliance and the Governor's Advisory Commission on African-American Affairs in Pennsylvania. His efforts were recognized with his induction into the Morehouse College Martin

Balancing his professional commitments, Dr. Thomas enjoys family life with his wife, Mrs. Jarrette L. Thomas, and their two children, Lillian Grace and Walter III. His ministry and service continue to impact and enrich the community, driven by a steadfast commitment to his faith and service.

Bishop Walter S. Thomas, Sr.

Bishop Thomas has served as the pastor of the New Psalmist Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland since 1975. Under his leadership, the church body has grown to over 8,000 active members. On October 16, 2010, a vision was fulfilled, a testimony of God's faithfulness, when the New Psalmist family moved into their new edifice, a 4000-seat state of the art facility, designed to minister to the needs of individuals in the 21st century.

Bishop Thomas has developed programs of evangelism, mission and education. Worship services are held every Wednesday at 12:00pm, and every Sunday morning at 9:00am. The church's television broadcast, "Empowering Disciples", can be viewed locally every Sunday morning.

Bishop Walter S. Thomas, Sr. is a highly regarded executive and personal coach with over 30 years of experience in working with church leaders, pastors, church staffs, and building effective ministry teams. Bishop Thomas is a Myers Briggs Practitioner certified in MBTI assessments and interpretations. He leads workshops and seminars across the county on preparing leaders for their next level.

Bishop Thomas is the presiding prelate of Kingdom Association of Covenant Pastors, a fellowship that endeavors to encourage, assist, edify, and celebrate Pastors in kingdom work. He has served as the past president of the Hampton University Minister's Conference 1999-2002. He is also author of the books Spiritual Navigation for the 21st Century and Good Meat Makes its Own Gravy, Hanging on by a Thread, and editor of Outstanding Black Sermons Volume 4 in which he is featured as one of the contributors.

Bishop Thomas received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Maryland in Economics. He earned his Master of Divinity degree from the Howard University School of Religion in Washington, D.C. and a Doctor of Ministry degree from Saint Mary's Seminary & University in Baltimore, Maryland, and honorary degrees from Virginia Seminary and Bethune Cookman College. Bishop Thomas and his committed partner in ministry, Patricia, have three lovely children, Joi, Walter Jr., and Joshua.

Greetings from Wes Moore

Office of the Governor

Dear Rev. Thomas,

I write to extend my congratulations on your installation as pastor of New Psalmist Baptist Church.

Under the leadership of Bishop Thomas, New Psalmist has served as a beacon of light to the city of Baltimore and beyond for decades, and I know the bishop is confident in your ability to carry the work forward to even greater heights.

When Dawn, Jamie, and I had a chance to worship with you last month, we were blessed by your exceptional gift of ministering. Your unwavering commitment to demonstrating love and building community will continue to uplift every person that New Psalmist reaches.

May today be the start of many more fruitful years of service in your role as pastor; as the scripture says, "He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion."

May God continue to bless you as you shepherd New Psalmist Baptist Church.

Greetings from Chris Van Hollen

United States Senator

Dear Friends,

I am delighted to congratulate Rev. Dr. Walter S. Thomas, Jr. on his installation as Pastor of the New Psalmist Baptist Church.

Since 1899, three distinguished men have served as pastors of New Psalmist Baptist Church and left a legacy of service and spiritual guidance. With his extensive background in religious theology and dedicated commitment to service, Dr. Thomas will continue their legacy and lead the parishioners of New Psalmist Baptist Church diligently while leaving his mark on the greater community.

Through its extensive program of ministries and service, the New Psalmist Baptist Church has significantly impacted our community for the better. I commend the church's local and state outreach efforts as well as their community programs such as the Project 200 Job Training Center, which prepares people for the workforce. Thanks to the vitality, compassion, and devoted service of its clergy and members, this congregation will continue to make a difference in the lives of our community under Dr. Thomas' guidance.

I look forward to all that Rev. Dr. Walter S. Thomas, Jr. will do for the New Psalmist Baptist Church and for our community. You have my sincerest congratulations and best wishes for a wonderful celebration.

Greetings from Kweisi Mfume

Member of Congress | 7th District of Maryland

Dear Reverend Dr. Walter S. Thomas Jr.,

It is with profound joy that I extend my heartfelt congratulations on your installation as the Pastor of New Psalmist Baptist Church. This occasion is not just a testament to your dedication and spiritual leadership but also a continuation of a remarkable legacy established by your father, Dr. Walter Scott Thomas, Sr., a man of God whose friendship and mentorship I have been blessed to cherish over 45 years.

Your commitment to the Lord's work, evidenced through your passion, intellect, and patient faith, heralds a new chapter for the congregation of New Psalmist Baptist Church. Under your leadership, I am confident that the church will continue to flourish, reaching new heights in spiritual growth, service to the Kingdom, and the profound pursuit of justice and love as taught by Christ.

Your ascent to this sacred role during these times is reflective of God's trust in your capabilities and His divine plan. As Joshua succeeded Moses and led the Israelites with courage and faith, so too are you called to lead your congregation with the same fervor, wisdom, and vision.

"Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go." (Joshua 1 :9). May these words guide you as you embark on this noble journey.

The relationship between New Psalmist Baptist Church and myself has always been one of mutual support and shared vision. It is a relationship that I treasure and look forward to continuing under your leadership. As you step into this new role, know that you have my support and prayers. May God's wisdom guide you, His love comfort you, and His strength uphold you as you shepherd His flock. I am excited to witness the new chapters of growth, service, and faith that you and the New Psalmist Baptist Church will write together.

Congratulations once again, Reverend Dr. Thomas. May God's grace and peace be upon you, your family, and the entire New Psalmist Baptist Church congregation.

Greetings from Brandon M. Scott

Mayor, City of Baltimore

On behalf of the people of Baltimore, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the installation of Rev. Dr. Walter S. Thomas, Jr. as senior pastor of New Psalmist Baptist Church.

Rev. Thomas delivered his inaugural sermon in 2001 at New Psalmist under the spiritual guidance of his father and pastor, Bishop Walter S. Thomas, Sr., and he was ordained into the ministry in 2007. In 2014, Rev. Thomas became Senior Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Steelton, Pennsylvania, where he was a visionary leader, launching transformative initiatives and modernizing departments.

In August 2023 Rev. Thomas was elected Pastor-Elect of New Psalmist, and since his arrival, he has worked tirelessly to make a positive impact on the community and the spiritual lives of his congregation. Congratulations to Rev. Thomas and the New Psalmist community, and best wishes for a memorable ceremony!
